

Artist Access Rider Template

Access Riders are documents that disabled artists use to share their access requirements and are vital tools for allowing disabled artists to work without barriers. An updated access rider is needed for each project or event.

You can find additional guidance for filling out this form here:

Artist name pronouns.....

Email address

Phone number (optional)

I prefer to be contacted by email phone other during, these hours / on these days

Emergency contact name

Emergency contact number

Any other useful emergency information, for example information about allergies or emergency equipment.

Support Workers

I require these support workers in order to carry out work.
The cost of these must be covered by the host organisation:

BSL interpreter, hourly rate

Live captioner, hourly rate

Support worker / personal assistant (PA), hourly rate

Other hourly rate

What are your access requirements? For example you might require step-free access, large print text, a quiet rest space, help carrying equipment, additional time to respond to questions, or low level lighting.

Is there anything else we can do to make you feel included?

Any other information

To be filled out by the host organisation:

“I have read and understood this document and I commit to supporting the artist in accordance with these terms to the best of my/my organisation’s ability. If any requirements stated in this Access Rider cannot be met, I will address these with the artist as soon as possible in order to find an alternative solution. This document will be treated in strict confidence.”
